WE SELL P. N. CORSETS

Do you know what they are? The Corsets of comfort and style. The only corsets that will not—because they cannot—stretch. They're built that way. The test of time has convinced us that what the manufacturers long ago claimed is absolutely true. These corsets cannot stretch. Because of the properly shaped and carefully shrunken material which enter into their make up it is an utter impossibility. Three qualities—$1, $1.25, $1.50.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT POINT!

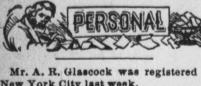

Get the right size. Nature gives most women beautiful figures which they promptly ruin with poor corsets. Get a corset that fits and pay enough to get a good one. Too small a corset distorts the figure—in time it will be bad. Too large a corset case point of the corset strikes you where it should. An able saleswoman has charge of our corset section—she has studied the question and can help you to determine the style and size best adapted to your figure. Consult her.

AT Pittsburgh the other day the "Reformed" Presbyterian Synod broke out in denunciation of secret orders, declaring them -

"Christless, ensnaring in their nature, pernicious in their tendency and perilous to the liberties of both Church and state."

Fortunately, this "Reformed" body of Presbyterians embraces only some 15,000 souls and jackasses all told, so they will hardly leave the two or three million members of secret orders in this country.

EDITORS, who receive complimentary tickets to county fairs and other places, are often looked upon as deadbeats, but the Managers of the Woodford (Ill.) County Fair, who have some experience in such matters, had the following printed on the complimentary tickets used:

"This ticket has probably been paid for ten times by the paper to which it is issued. It will be honored in the hands of man, woman, child, wife, husband, father, mother, or any member of the Association by presenting it. It is good for entrance and grand stand, and bearer, if driving, will be entitled to pass team free. The Association recognizes the fact that its splendid success is due to the notices so freely given by the press, and, while we cannot render an equivalent in cash, we return our grateful thanks."

IT may not be uninteresting to the taxpayers of Mayville to know just what the present so-called "streets" have cost them during the past fourteen years.

Here are the figures -

1888	$3,907.41
1889	6,284.17
1890	6,109.78
1891	6,109.78

1898	4,572.30
1899	10,076.99
1900	3,096.33

Total $104,211.48

Mrs. Daniel Muldown of Covington is the mother of four pairs of twins in twelve years.

Pete Strogan made a bet at an Ashland saloon that he could drink a pint of whisky and a pint of turpentine and eat two 10-cent plugs of a certain brand of tobacco. He won the bet, but is seriously ill.

FELL FROM HIS TRAIN.

Bowman Girvin, a Maysville Man, Killed Under Cars at Paris.

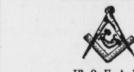

Bowman Girvin, whose home is in this city, met a horrible death at Paris early Saturday morning.

He was brakeman on the L. & N. freight which left Paris shortly after the accident occurred.

When the train reached Cynthia, Girvin was missed, and it was not until daylight that his remains were found in the railway yards at Paris—the body on one side of the rail and the severed head on the other.

It is probable that the East portion of Mr. Girvin's purchase will eventually contain a Parsonsage and Sunday-school room for the Church of the Nativity.

EASILY PROVEN.

There is no sufficient Necessity for Leaving Mayville to Look For Proof.

The experience given below by this well-known Mayville citizen is easily proven. The proof he offers for his convictions can safely be left with the reader. It is a difficult matter to describe an aching back or any of the ills caused by disordered kidneys. How to cure the trouble is of much more importance, and the most exacting resident of Mayville cannot ask for any better authority on this point than that given by Mrs. James Molen of 219 Lee street, who says:

"Our son was greatly troubled with his kidneys, and, as a consequence, he used many medicines nothing brought him relief. We learned about Doan's Kidney Pills, and his father went to J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and got a box for him. It has proved its great value. We most heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from kidney ailments."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box.

Mayville Star Lodge No. 1948 will have thanksgiving service Sunday, June 9th, 1901, at 2:30 p. m. at Scott Chapel by Rev. W. R. Harrington.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Mr. Omar Dodson Buys the Convent Property Entire For $17,000.

One of the largest transactions in real estate that has taken place in Mayville for some time was consummated on Saturday afternoon.

The presence here of Mother Borgia of Rock Island, Ill., meant the property was of great value to her.

Mr. John B. Chennault was one of the incorporators of the Kentucky Journal Company, which filed articles of incorporation at Frankfort Friday. The capital stock is $2,000.

First, that portion of the property fronting 132 feet on Third street, running back 105 feet, was offered for $15,000; but

Mr. Dodson wanted to buy all or none, so the offer was amended to include the 42 feet on Second street, running back 105 feet, the whole to go at $17,000.

The transaction was completed, and pending the execution of the deed Mr. Dodson gave his check for $1,000, which was received by Mother Borgia.

CITY'S FORTUNATE ESCAPE.

During the very time this transaction took place, a committee from the Board of Education was in session jowering over the school proposition.

With the usual interest, right the news of Mr. Dodson's purchase the people took a hush on it and adjourned.

THE LEDGER most heartily congratulates the city on its escape from this additional "job lot"—not that the property wasn't "dirty cheap" in value of property goes, but no property is cheap if it is not wanted.

It is probable that the East portion of Mr. Dodson's purchase will eventually contain a Parsonage and Sunday-school room for the Church of the Nativity.

It is the natural conclusion in that passing along the train he accidentally fell from the top of a car and was run over; but one report says that a couple of hoboes were on the front of the train and that he was running forward to put his car to the front. Still another report says he was seen struggling with one of these fellows on top of the car—the inference being that he was thrown to his death by the tramp.

Mr. Girvin was the youngest of a family of seven brothers and two sisters, of whom the latter are being Mrs. J. Wesley Lee, who was a widow.

The remains reached here Saturday evening in charge of Messrs. L. W. Phillips, J. E. McArthur and G. H. Booth, a committee from Jefferson Council No. 31, Jr. O. U. A. M., of Covington, of which Mr. Girvin was a member.

It is the natural conclusion in that passing along the train he accidentally fell from the top of a car and was run over; but one report says that a couple of hoboes were on the front of the train and that he was running forward to put his car to the front. Still another report says he was seen struggling with one of these fellows on top of the car—the inference being that he was thrown to his death by the tramp.

Mr. Girvin was the youngest of a family of seven brothers and two sisters, of whom the latter are being Mrs. J. Wesley Lee, who was a widow.
